Something about my life - a true story written in 1978 by
Doris Alene (Thomas) Hostetler

I was born at our home in the small town of LaCrosse, Washington in the Pallous hills country at 10PM on the 8th day of March 1907.

My big sister, Ruth, was 5 years, 7 months old; and my Big brother Wilfred was 3 years, 1-1/2 months old. They had been sent to Aunt Nellie's house for a couple of days so were not on my welcoming team that night.

Dr. Green trudged across town through the blustery cold night to assist in the delivery.

At that time, my parents owned the LaCrosse General Store where they sold everything from groceries to "dry goods"-- shoes, men's suits, hats, Hardware, harness and horse shoes, etc. Anything there was to sell they sold in their store. If they did not have an article in stock, they ordered it from the "Drummer" to bring on his next trip through. A drummer would now be called a salesman or supplier. They had regular routes to cover every month. Their business was competitive then (as it is today) so each drummer tried to get two- or three-days head start to beat out the others in the trade. Some traveled by horse drawn wagons and sold their wares from the wagons. Others were more sophisticated and traveled by train with many cases filled with "goods" to sell.

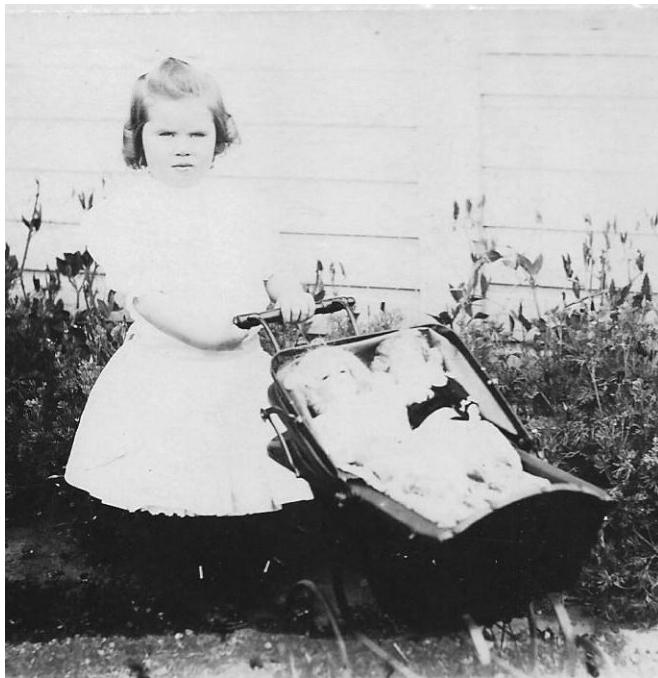

Things were going well for the Thomas family. They had a very comfortable home and business was going well.

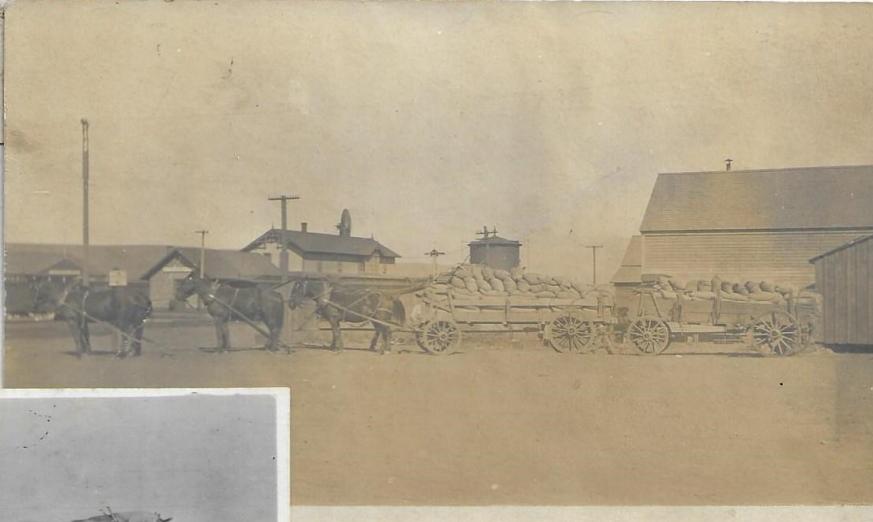

There was a large fenced yard for the children to play in along with the big, shaggy dog. Dash was an old sheep dog. He spent many years herding sheep on the open range. When he got too old for the job, his master gave him to my father. Dash was a very good "baby sitter". He watched constantly while the children were outside. If they tried to wander from the yard, Dash "herded" them back to safety. He seemed to know when they were in danger of any kind and would bark as he herded so Mother could come to the rescue. Mother said she never worried about the children as long as they had Dash.

The family had many friends among the people of LaCrosse and the surrounding area. They enjoyed their Saturday night dances, Sunday church, and other social activities. They often entertained small groups in their homes. You might say, they had a certain social prestige in the tiny village of perhaps 150 to 200 people.

1909: living with Parents and 2 siblings (Ruth Mae Thomas and Wilfred Aryes Thomas) in Hooper, Whitman Co, Washington, United States

The Pictures below are of Doris at her parent's home in Hooper Washington at the age of 2.5.

1956: Doris taught at the Santiam Grade School in Lebanon, she taught 1st, 2nd and 4th grades through her years at this school.

1959: Death of Doris's Father, James Sylvester Thomas, on 30 November 1959 in Vancouver, Clark Co, Washington, United States

1969: Death of Forrest, 6 April 1969, Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon, USA in a single car accident while driving to the store to pick-up some last things for easter dinner. We don't know for sure but he likely had a hart attach that caused him to loose control and run his car into a deep culvert where it collided with a concrete driveway that crossed the culvert.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Doris's Life After Forrest:

Doris continued to teach at the Santiam Grade School in Lebanon. On weekends she often had family over for dinner and cards, we all played pinocle.

Doris retired from teaching July 1, 1972

Doris was a dedicated school teacher. She enjoyed her vocation and made many friends through her contacts. She had a wonderful memory and kept up with the whereabouts of many of her former students and ex-teaching buddies.

Lebanon teachers complete careers

LEBANON — A Lebanon Elementary School District librarian and a teacher are completing their professional careers at the close of this school year.

They are Mrs. Walter (Cheslah) Young, for 15 years director of elementary school libraries, and Mrs. Forrest (Doris) Hostetler, who has been a Santiam Grade School instructor for 17 years.

A native of Albany, Mrs. Young is a graduate of Lebanon Union High School. She continued her studies at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth and did advanced work at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

"My first teaching job was a one-room school at Harlan, near Toledo," Mrs. Young recalled.

She also taught in the eastern Oregon community of Lexington and at Turner before returning to the Lebanon area to teach.

Before becoming a school librarian, Mrs. Young taught at Queen Anne Grade School, completing 29 years with Lebanon schools.

Her husband died three years ago. A son, Jerry, resides in Portland.

"I think students read a lot more," Mrs. Young replied to the query if she had noted changes in reading habits over the past few years.

Mrs. Young said she plans to read a lot, participate in community affairs and travel.

Mrs. Young makes her home at 265 Hiatt St.

Mrs. Hostetler was reared and attended school in Harrisburg. She prepared for a teaching career at Oregon College of Education with advanced work at the University of Oregon, Oregon State University in Corvallis and Oregon College of Education.

Cedar Flats on the McKenzie River east of Eugene was Mrs. Hostetler's first school.

In the past 24 years, including her 17 years on the Santiam School teaching staff, Mrs. Hostetler also taught at Fairview and Tallman in this area.

She and her late husband, Forrest, reared two children. They are Donald of Corvallis and Mrs. Harold Pearce of Mill City. Mrs. Hostetler has seven grandchildren.

"Yes, I have noted changes in students," said the schoolteacher. "But there is much more to offer now. Communications, for one thing, are so advanced."

The retiring instructor said she will be busy with her hobbies, will travel and devote time to her garden.

Her home is at 691 W. Grant St.

Banquet to fete retiring tutors

DORIS HOSTETLER

CHESLAH YOUNG

Two retiring teachers, Mrs. A. F. (Doris) Hostetler and Mrs. Walter (Cheslah) Young, will be honored at the Lebanon Education association (LEA) banquet Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Doris Hostetler

After retiring as a first grade teacher at the Santiam school this spring, Mrs. Hostetler says she is "just going to do what comes naturally". . . a little bit of traveling and gardening and sewing.

She has always considered her profession "doing what comes naturally", too, because teaching is, a tradition in her family.

"My grandfather was a teacher, my mother was a teacher, and then my sister and myself," she explains.

Mrs. Hostetler began teaching at a small school along the McKenzie highway, spent two years teaching at the Tallman school which later merged with the Tennessee district, taught five years at the Fairview school, and then, 17 years ago, came to teach in the same room at the Santiam school she works in today.

"I've always been a first grade teacher," Mrs. Hostetler remarks, "I like to see them blossom out as they meet new learning situations."

Cheslah Young

"I started teaching when I was 18 years old," recalls Mrs.

Young, "I always wanted to be a teacher. I was so inspired by my third grade teacher, Mrs. Sara Morris, that I wanted to be a teacher, too. And I later taught with her at Queen Anne!"

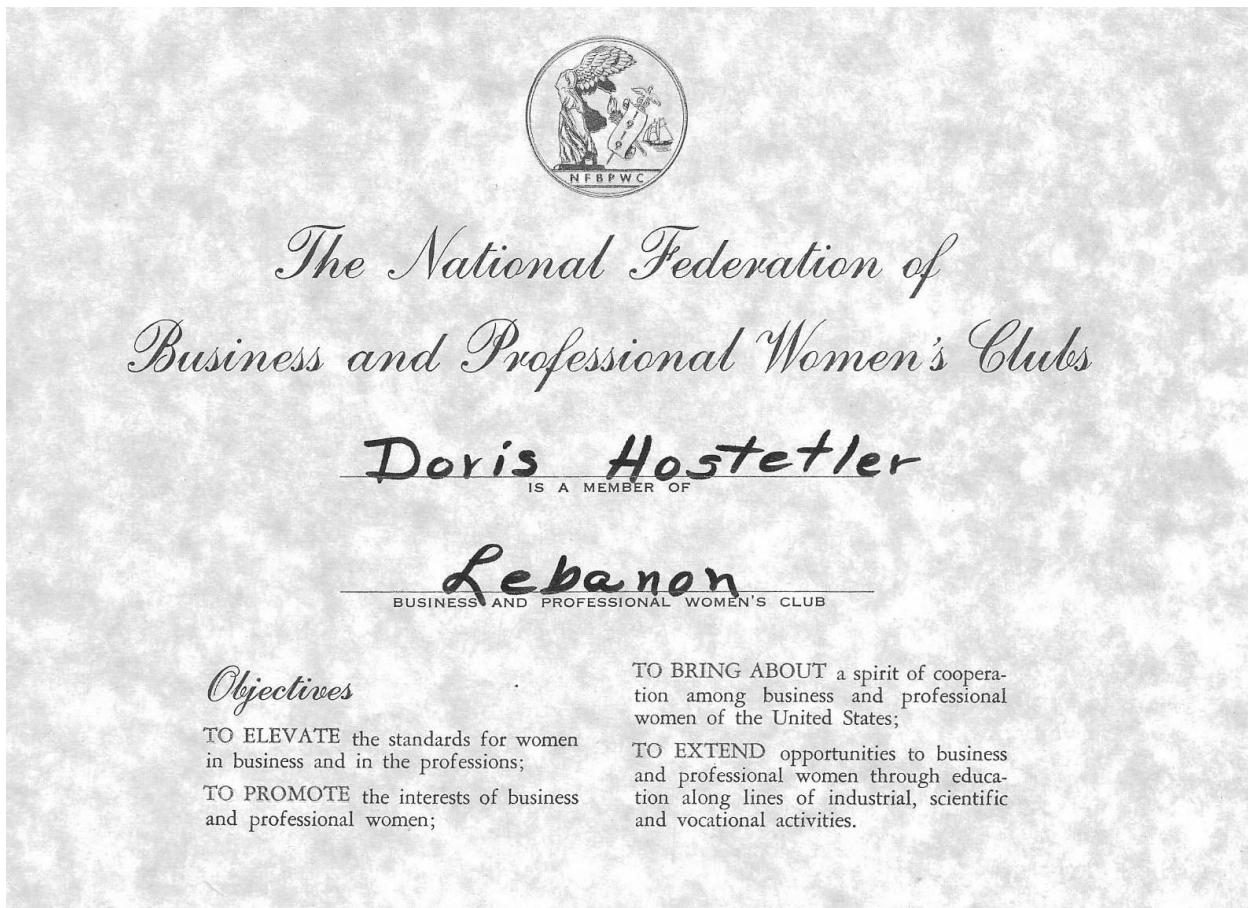

Mrs. Young has been a teacher for 42 years, teaching third grade for 14 years at Queen Anne, and then spending the past 15 years as elementary librarian.

Although born in Albany, Mrs. Young came to Lebanon as a sophomore and graduated from Lebanon Union high school. After retiring this spring she intends to continue her residence in Lebanon and travel extensively.

After Doris retired from teaching, she kept busy with her club activities. She was a member of:

1. First United Methodist Church
2. United Methodist Women.
3. Linn County Schools Federal Credit Union Loan Board
4. Lebanon Community Hospital Auxiliary
5. Business and Professional Womens Association

6. American Association of University Women
7. Alpha Delta Kappa Teachers Sorority

and is entitled

Doris freely volunteered her time and efforts to many causes. She was an active participant in every organization of which she was a member. She worked on the Loan Board for the Linn County School Federal Credit Union shortly after her retirement in 1972.

One of the most important organizations to her, was her work with the Lebanon Hospital Auxiliary. May 1983 she was presented with a Certificate of Appreciation for 500 hours of volunteer work and earned other awards from them as well. She was very proud to receive these awards. Any kind of recognition from the people she loved and cared about was treasured by her.

Like Family

"One of The Family" read the small maroon-colored buttons worn by hospital staff and volunteers during National Hospital Week. And it looked like a family reunion at the volunteer recognition tea that week. Employees joined volunteers to drink a cup of punch and snack on "goodies" and thank the volunteers for the time they had donated to the hospital.

"Nearly 7,000 hours were spent in volunteer activities on behalf of the hospital in the last year by members of the Development Council, Volunteers, Governing Boards, Medical Staff and Auxiliary," commented Connie Brock, Director of Community Relations, as she awarded service hour pins. Those who earned pins were: 100 hours - Kay Alexander, Barbara Alley, Betty Curtis, Fern Persons, Jeanine Shanks, Valeria Shoberg, Joanne Nelson and Vicki Horel. 200 hours - Doris Jansen. 300 hours - DeNice Holmes. 400 hours - Hazel Ranney. 500 hours - Doris Hostettler.

Doris Hostetler

Expires Dec. 1986 Member Since 1984

Doris enjoyed world travel. She went on trips with her friends and family. Some of the places she traveled were:

Alaska, Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, Greece, France, Holland, Italy, Denmark Switzerland and the Caribbean. She enjoyed all the trips, especially liking cruises. Doris and her brother, Wilfred, went on a cruise and several "White Water Trips" together down the Rouge and Snake Rivers. She and her friend, Louise Canoy, travelled with a church group for two weeks to Ensenada and St. Phillippe.

Doris enjoyed people and drew strength from them.

Doris was a very sensitive person. She was a very strong family-oriented person. She loved all her family and was always concerned for their welfare.

She started recording her family history and was able to retrace her ancestry back to the 1800's. She loved family so much, that she saved old newspapers, articles from newspapers, letters and very old family portraits. Some of them date back to the 1800's. She wanted to preserve her family's history for the upcoming generations.

Doris had a long bout with cancer. She had faced her dilemma with courage beyond anyone's imagination. She never gave up hope that what the doctors were trying to do would somehow lead her to a miraculous cure. She subjected herself to any treatment in hopes that she could stay around a little longer to be with the people she cared so much about.

Doris died on 28 Jun 1987 (aged 80) - Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon, USA
